

UNITED WAY OF GREENVILLE COUNTY

Leadership Groups

As a United Way supporter, you have the opportunity to join a leadership group and increase your impact through unique volunteer experiences and exclusive events. Donors who make an annual pledge of $1,000 or more are eligible for Palmetto Society membership and may join additional groups like African American Leadership, Women United or the Young Leaders Society. Donors ages 30 and under can join Young Leaders Society with an annual pledge of $500 or more. Learn more about each of our United Way leadership groups below.

POINSETT SOCIETY members choose to include United Way in their wills or other estate plans. Whether it is a cash contribution, a bequest, a life insurance policy, a retirement plan, a charitable trust, or a gift through appreciated securities and real estate, Poinsett Society members take advantage of a special opportunity to shape the future of our community.

ALEXIS DE TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY members invest in Greenville County with an annual gift of $10,000 or more. Alexis de Tocqueville Society offers special events and unique learning opportunities throughout the year.

PALMETTO SOCIETY members come from diverse neighborhoods, backgrounds and careers. They recognize that connecting their passions and working together can make our community a better place. United Way provides these leadership donors with opportunities to meaningfully engage in issues that matter to all of us:

- Network with other community leaders.
- Volunteer for community outreach projects.
- Join a United Way affinity group: African American Leadership, Women United, Young Leaders Society, and ReUNITED.
- Special events and unique learning opportunities throughout the year.

AFRICAN AMERICAN LEADERSHIP (AAL) members participate in a range of impactful service opportunities, including the Judge Merl F. Code Scholarship in honor of United Way's first African American board chair. Year-round networking and social events connect members with other community leaders and volunteer opportunities.

WOMEN UNITED is comprised of corporate leaders and community volunteers passionate about advancing economic mobility for women in Greenville County. Women United also hosts a variety of impactful volunteer and networking opportunities, including our annual Women United Summit and the Jobs to Careers Scholarship program.

YOUNG LEADERS SOCIETY (YLS) is a network of engaged leaders under the age of 40 who share a passion for helping others and strengthening our community. YLS members connect through unique education and networking events, serve through hands-on volunteer opportunities and grow through innovative leadership programs.

ReUNITED brings together older adults and retirees to connect, engage and make a difference in our community. ReUNITED understands the important role that volunteerism and philanthropy play in strengthening our community, and are ready to put their life experiences and knowledge to work for others.
